

OREGON COLLEGE of ORIENTAL MEDICINE

2017-2018 Patricia and Paul C. Bragg Health Science Scholarships

The Bragg Health Foundation has donated $10,000 to Oregon College of Oriental Medicine (OCOM) in honor of Dr. Paul C. Bragg. The funds will be used as scholarships to support continuing students during the 2017-2018 academic year. Five awards from the Patricia and Paul C. Bragg Health Science Scholarships of $2,000 each will be available to students in the second, third, or fourth year of OCOM's master's program. Scholarship recipients will be selected based on their response to the following essay topic.

OCOM's mission statement references "a community of service and healing." What role can nutrition play in a community of service and healing? How will you integrate the study of nutrition and its impact on human wellness into your practice as a health provider?

Eligibility — Scholarship applicants must be currently enrolled OCOM master's program students in good academic standing. Previous Bragg Scholarship recipients are not eligible to apply.

Instructions — Scholarship applicants must submit a typed, double-spaced essay with a maximum of 500 words, and the completed scholarship application form (below) to OCOM's Financial Aid Office by 4:30 PM, Monday, April 24, 2017. Completed applications and essays may be submitted via email to scholarships@ocom.edu.

The Patricia and Paul C. Bragg Health Science Scholarship Committee will review all essays and determine scholarship awardees. Scholarship applicants will be notified of awards in June 2017; award disbursements will be made during Fall, Winter, and Spring terms of the 2017-2018 academic year. All scholarship recipients will be asked to provide a photo and are required to submit written thank you notes to The Bragg Health Foundation at the end of the scholarship year.
