Completed scholarship application

Essay – In your essay (two-page, 500-word maximum) please address the following topic:

Creativity and imagination are essential attributes for leading a fully self-expressed, meaningful, and purpose-driven life. Often, people who suffer from chronic disease or health trauma lose their ability to create, imagine, and invent a purposeful and meaningful life. Describe how your training as a medical provider can restore a space for creativity, imagination, and self-expression in patients who suffer from disease.

Criteria for consideration: The scholarship committee will review all application materials and select the recipient based on the eligibility criteria. Scholarship applicants will be notified of the results by mid-June 2019.

Please affirm that you have read the following statement by signing your name below:

I have read and understand the instructions that articulate the process involved with the 2019-2020 Nathan J. Heide Scholarship application. I also understand that, if I am a Federal Financial Aid recipient and awarded a scholarship, the Office of Financial Aid will incorporate the scholarship into my 2019-2020 financial aid award letter.

The essay that I will submit as part of this scholarship application is my own work, and I understand that submitted application materials are not returnable and may be presented to the public.
