

OREGON COLLEGE of ORIENTAL MEDICINE

ocom.edu | 75 NW Couch Street, Portland, OR 97209 | 503-253-3443

Instructor – Patient-Practitioner Relationship

Are you looking for an opportunity to work for an organization that is helping to change our world for the better? If so, Oregon College of Oriental Medicine (OCOM) might be the perfect place for you.

Our campus and offices are in the heart of Old Town Chinatown, in the LEED Gold certified remodel of the former Globe Hotel building. Tom McCall Waterfront Park and the Willamette River are just a block away. You'll also enjoy easy access to the MAX Light Rail, other mass transit, and cycling routes.

OCOM is a nonprofit graduate medical school in Portland, Oregon. Our mission is to transform health care by educating highly skilled and compassionate practitioners, providing exemplary patient care, and engaging in innovative research within a community of service and healing. OCOM's primary activities are providing studies for specialized graduate degrees; operating two teaching clinics, providing affordable care for patients and hands-on experience for student interns; and conducting acupuncture and Chinese medicine research. For more information about the college, please visit ocom.edu.

We are seeking a qualified, dynamic Part-Time Faculty Member to join our academic team and teach Patient-Practitioner Relationship beginning Spring quarter, 2022.

Position Summary

Patient-Practitioner Relationship is a two-credit course that meets in two separate sections in Spring quarter, April 4-June 24. This is a didactic course currently offered through Zoom on Mondays, 11:00 AM-1:00 PM and Thursdays, 2:00-4:00 PM.

Through lecture, Patient-Practitioner Relationship students explain characteristics and strategies of effective communication and the principles of ethical and inclusive patient-practitioner relationships, apply principles of trauma-informed care, identify differences between personal and professional boundaries, demonstrate conflict resolution and proficiency in motivational interviewing skills, describe screening and referral strategies for mental illness, substance use disorder and intimate partner violence as well as strategies for suicide prevention and develop a self-care plan for balance and resilience as a practitioner

This position reports to the Chair of Integrative Medicine.

Pay range for teaching this course is $41-50 per instructional hour, depending on academic background and teaching experience. Some meeting attendance is required.

The ideal candidate for this position has a strong clinical counseling background and a commitment to teaching at the graduate level.

Essential Functions

- Provide classroom instruction as assigned
- Develop effective instructional materials
- Develop effective evaluation instruments for the assessment of student learning
- Provide students with regular and timely assessment
- Provide department chair with a report of student outcomes
- Collaborate with the department chair and Dean of Graduate Studies in developing curriculum
- Attend department and other mandated meetings
- Participate in faculty evaluation and other assessment activities

Continued

- Act professionally while executing all functions of this job description
- Support the mission of Oregon College of Oriental Medicine
- Abide by the policies of Oregon College of Oriental Medicine

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Excellent knowledge of general psychology and counselling
- Able to work as a team member in a collaborative environment
- Working knowledge of basic computer software including but not be limited to the Microsoft Office Suite and Google applications
- Strong verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills

Education and Experience

- ND, MD, PA, NP, MSW, master's in psychology, counseling, or related field required
- A minimum of two years' clinical experience; five or more years of clinical experience preferred
- Preferred:
 - Prior graduate teaching experience
 - Experience with innovative educational methods (e.g., case-based learning)

To Apply

Send cover letter and CV (.pdf format only) to HR@ocom.edu. In your cover letter, please answer the question, "How would this position at OCOM fit with your long-term professional goals?"

Notice of Nondiscrimination

OCOM recognizes the individual dignity of each employee, student, patient, volunteer, and job applicant. OCOM does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital or familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, or any other basis prohibited by local, state, or federal law.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination based on sex in educational programs, including areas such as admissions, financial aid, scholarships, course offerings and access, employment, and other services. Title IX protects students and employees, both male and female, from unlawful sexual harassment, including sexual violence, in college programs and activities. OCOM has designated a Title IX Coordinator to whom questions or concerns about this notice should be addressed: Amber Appleton, 75 NW Couch Street, Portland OR 97209, or titleix@ocom.edu.

This policy complies with the spirit and the letter of applicable federal and local laws, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.